Winner—Ch. c. by Midlothian—Rosette.
Start good. Won driving. Midian finished strong. Homelike showed lots of speed and should have won. Momentum was unluckily placed at start on outside, was bumped on the stretch turn and finished fast. Wasteful, off slowly and badly, made up an immense lot of ground. Commerce was eased at the end when he was closing fast. Merlin and Afghan were prominent first part of race. Chalmers finished like a lion.

Scratched—Heigh Ho, 112.

Overweights—Midian, 1 1/2 pounds; Merlin, 1 1/2.

1397 SECOND RACE—7-8 Mile. $750 added. 3-year-olds and upward. Handicap.

Winner—B. c. 3, by Tremont—Armistice.
Start good for all but Buckwa. Won easily. Rodermond was best and is in grand form. He had the foot of his field throughout. Braw Lad, on the rail, saved ground and was lucky. He closed strong in the last quarter. PEEP O'DAY was messed about on the turn and pocketed in the stretch. He was a good horse and should have been second. He was pulled up at the end. Ramiro will about do his next out. He could have been much closer up. He was eased last sixteenth. Imperator looked to be a contender in the stretch. He quit badly when punished. This colt has a great burst of speed. He was pulled to a walk at the end. Clicquot and Her Own both ran well. Typhoon quit badly after being prominent for half a mile. He cannot be in good health judging from his last two races. Chum, too, was eased at the end.

Scratched—Harry Reed, 126; Octagon, 118; Libertine, 105; Leedsville, 104; Salvado, 100; Hanlon, 118; Sunup, 112; Cacique, 106.

Time, 24, 48 1/2, 1:00, 1:10 1/2.

Winner—Br. c. by Hanover—Lady Reel.
Start good. Won easily. Hamburg simply outclassed his field to a degree that precludes the idea of any weight stopping him. Firearm and George Keene were killed off chasing him. Neither had anything left on which to finish. Kitefoot's race was phenomenal. She was off behind and came like a lioness in the last quarter. Briar Sweet showed wonderful speed and but for being called upon too soon, would have been second. Handball and Archduke appeared anchored. Neither showed their former speed. Queen was prominent for a period, but quit badly and was pulled up in the stretch.

Winner—B. c. 4, by Hanover—Mollie L.
Start good. Won driving. Holladay was far the best and finished with wonderful gameness although swerving badly through the stretch. He had a world of speed throughout. Dutch Skater was perfectly handled and showed rare staying quality. He might have won had the pace been stronger. He was carried wide in the stretch and interfered with somewhat by Holladay. Ben Eder came resolutely last half. Ornament, not so luckily placed to-day, was messed about somewhat and under a choking pull for a mile and a half. The weight stopped him in the last quarter. He was eased right at the end. He ran a grand race notwithstanding his defeat. Song and Dance showed his ability to stay, but was outclassed. Sunny Slope as the pacer-maker, was at a great disadvantage, but hung on with her usual gameness. She was merely out-sprinted last half. Rensselaer is in bad shape. He had to be urged to keep up in the first mile and certainly needs a rest. He didn't look to have a chance at any stage.

Scratched—Lobengula, 95; Sir Walter, 112; Jefferson, 85.

Winner—B. c. 3, by Pontiac—The Squaw.
Start good. Won driving. Leedsville ran kindly. He has wonderful speed and was allowed to steal away. Rubicon was best. He was waited with too long and got a badly judged ride. He closed like a flash at the end. Libertine ran a splendid race and showed a return of his old form. He will be hard to beat his next out. Break o' Day had no chance under Gee, but ran well. Tierra wants a strong, resolute ride. No light boy can do him justice. Bernardillo stopped badly after three-quarters and was eased last quarter. King T closed much ground in the last half, but was overweighted and did not belong in the race. He favors a distance. Patrol broke down. Dorian was eased up in the stretch.
Scratched—Harry Reed, 108; Domitor, 92; Rondo, 107; Cromwell, 101; Salvable, 102.

Start good. Won easily. Wood Pigeon was good today and can go any route. Trillion stopped badly and was laboring throughout. He does not show to advantage at fencing. Flushing's ride, as indicated by the betting, looked suspicious. His jockey was reported to have been intoxicated. Sayonara fences poorly.

Winner—Ch. f, 3, by Whitney—Flaxey.
Off first break. Start perfect for all but Senator Morrill. Won hand ridden; second, third and fourth driving to the limit. Easter Eve got a running start. She needed it. She is a very fast filly, but not game nor able to stand adversity. Lady Dixon did her best. She was under a drive the last three furlongs. Dean took her the long route too. C H Whelan was messed about shortly after the start. He was lucky though, skinned the rails and ran his race. Gallante had no speed early but was running over horses at the end. Watch Senator Morrill. With an equal break he would have been a contender. Elsie Ferguson had some speed but used it chasing Easter Eve.
Scratched—Tidiness, 97.

Winner—Ch. c, 3, by Azra—Princess Annie.
Post 5 minutes. Start good. Won in a long, hard drive of four. Protus was best. He displayed great gameness. Burns says he broke down under him above the sixteenth pole. The colt finished on three legs and appeared to be in great pain. Swordsman got the kind of a ride he needs. Gray always had a good hold of his head and was always free from interference. Benamela ran a greatly improved race. He was sharply cut off on the first turn and made up a lot of ground. He can win his next. Tin Cup acted nicely at the post and got away well. She showed dislike for a distance though. La Moore ran a fair race. Loudon swerved badly on the end. He seems to be of no present account.

Winner—Br. c, by Oliver Twist—Miss Rhodes.
Post 8 minutes. Start good. The first three were driving hard. Caywood probably outflashed Murphy a trifle. Both horses, though, were staggering at the finish. Billy Mason had Our Gertie hemmed in so that Murphy could not use his whip. The winner is a sturdy colt. Dr. Sharp got strong handling. He is a loosing sort of a fellow and needs it. Knapp punished him severely from the head of the stretch. Dave Waldo was short. He weakened in the stretch.

Winner—B. c, by Buchanan—Vulture.
Post 4 minutes. Start good. Won with something to spare, after an early drive; second driving and out to the last ounce. Sheppard is a queer running horse. He faltered a bit on the turn and Clay hit him once with his whip. He jumped away from it like a scared deer and was pricking his ears at the finish. He needs some one that can hold him together all the way. Carnero had to take the long route and ran a good race. He has a bad leg and seemed to favor it. David Tenny ran a good race and should win among his own.
Scratched—Moncreith, 110.

Winner—Blk. f, 3, by Wagner—Fondling.
Post 30 minutes. Start poor. Won well in hand; second, third and fourth driving. Harry Duke was badly messed about at the start. It took him some time to get straightened out and when he did Caywood raced him to pieces down the back stretch. Clay rides Imp to perfection. He rated the filly nicely and took her back on the stretch turn. In doing so he deceived Caywood and Burns. They thought the filly was all out and both became careless. Below the eighth pole Clay gave Imp her head and she easily drew away. Presbyterian was coming fast at the end. Patroon, off badly, was never urged.

Winner—B. c, 4, by Duke of Montrose—Nettie.
Post 30 seconds. Start perfect. Won cleverly; second driving. Harry McCouch was perhaps the best. Kitley was of no assistance to him and was extremely lucky to be able to hold on the entire route. It is asking too much for a small boy to well ride a heavy headed horse like Harry McCouch. Bing Binger was best ridden. Woods placed him nicely and took the short route. Evanatus ran a bad race. He was swerving all over the stretch and Burns pulled him up. He has developed into a "bleeder."
Scratched—Greyhurst, 80.

Winner—Ch. f, 3, by Prince Royal—Lonely.
Post 4 minutes. Start good. The first four were hard driven. Lone Princess got up in the last jump. She was a good filly and won on her own courage. Gray got her cut off on the back stretch and also went wide on the last turn. Forseen ran a cracking good race. She was under the whip from the three furlong pole. W C T is a coward. He seemed to have everything beaten at the head of the stretch. Milwaukee had a stormy journey. Burns tried to squeeze through on the bend and was shut off. Tobacco was far from fit. He ran about three furlongs and died away.
